

QUESTIONS:

1. What is the name for the New Brunswick shelter for Aboriginal women who are victims of intimate partner violence?
2. Name one form of abuse that women and children endure in an abusive situation.
3. There are 22 important items that a woman should take when planning on leaving an abusive relationship. Could you list four?
4. There are some suggestions that a woman could do to increase safety in her home, list three.
5. Whether you use Internet Explorer, Firefox, Netscape, or AOL, what is the first and most important thing one can do to protect themselves from abusers discovering they have been on the internet browsing for family violence information?
6. Name one of the four historical factors that hurt aboriginal communities.
7. There are many barriers victims face from leaving abuse, please list three.
8. Identify two of the seven problems or negative conditions that are a result of the historical factors that hurt aboriginal communities.
9. There are several steps a woman can take to help support the enforcement of a protection order. Name two.
10. How is the amount of child support determined?
11. There are several safety suggestions a woman can do at her work and in public to feel safer - name three.
12. What factors does the court consider when determining spousal support or alimony?
13. True or False? A parent who is a victim could be at a disadvantage in legal actions with the abusive partner over custody and access to children if she/he is known to use illegal drugs.
14. How is a family defined in aboriginal communities?
15. Name one thing you could do if you knew of a family member, friend, or colleague that is in an abusive relationship?
16. Family violence can happen to women, children, babies, youth, men, and elders. What are some characteristics of people that may put them at greater risk?
17. What is the safest way to prevent an abuser from monitoring a partner's/ spouse's Internet and email activity?
18. Does a child witnessing family abuse fall under child abuse?
19. There are six key messages for children to remember when they are exposed to family violence, name two.
20. What kind of training would be beneficial for police, RCMP and band constables involved in crisis intervention?
21. During an abusive incident it is best to avoid which room or rooms in the house?
22. Name 2 of the 4 purposes of the Healing Journey toolkit.
23. Name three of the six negative feelings that may make a person take a closer look at his/her relationship in order to heal the harm caused by relationship violence.
24. Of the nine community members identified to create a family violence prevention group or committee, name four.

HEALING JOURNEY BINGO CARD

WWW.THEHEALINGJOURNEY.CA

18	12	6	21	3
22	1	15	10	20
8	17	FREE	23	5
11	24	13	2	14
4	7	19	16	9